West Valley City Manager Announces Formation of Special Review Panel to Examine Dismissed Neighborhood Narcotics Unit Cases

West Valley City -- As West Valley City continues to examine the findings of the internal investigation into the Police Department's Neighborhood Narcotics Unit, City Manager Wayne Pyle has announced the formation of a Special Review Panel to review all dismissed cases generated by the unit.

The Special Review Panel will include outside legal and judicial expertise and will be formed immediately.

"This is a logical next step as we work to restore public trust," says City Manager Wayne Pyle. "This panel will provide us neutral, expert recommendations as we move forward with improved policies and procedures and appropriate accountability measures."
